

Losing the Older Crowd

Use of chiropractic and "manipulative and body-based therapies," as well as CAM, rise steadily until age 59. But the numbers decline significantly in later years – just when people need these therapies, particularly chiropractic, the most.

*And other manipulative/body-based therapies

SOURCE: Complementary and Alternative Medicine Use Among Adults and Children: United States, 2007. National Health Statistics Reports, (#12), Dec. 10, 2008.