

Home Access

The top three activities of U.S. adults on line are e-mail (87.7%), searching for information (64.2%), and news, weather and sports (52.5%). This further confirms the internet as an inexpensive and effective means to educate and inform U.S. consumers about chiropractic and wellness.

* First year the U.S. Census Bureau collected data.

SOURCE: U.S. Census Bureau, Current Population Survey, various years.