

Your Services Are Sorely Needed

According to a recent report from the National Center for Health Statistics of the Centers for Disease Control, approximately one in 10 adults suffers chronic pain lasting at least a year, and one in four reports suffering pain for at least an entire day during the previous month. And here's the kicker: Lower back pain, headaches and joint pain, aching or stiffness were among the most common complaints – ideal conditions to be managed chiropractically.

SOURCE: Health, United States, 2006. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, National Center for Health Statistics, November 2006.