

Another Reason for Seniors to Stay Active

Cancer and cardiovascular disease are both associated, at least in part, with a sedentary lifestyle. So, too, is low back pain, as a recent study emphasizes. Seniors who engaged in strenuous physical activity at least weekly were less likely to suffer LBP than those who were inactive.

