

Too Many Still Lack Health Insurance

According to the CDC, more than one in six adults and nearly one in 10 children lacked health insurance as of 2007.* These figures have not fluctuated significantly in the past five years.

SOURCE: Health Insurance Coverage, U.S., 2007. National Center for Health Statistics.