

Hospitals & CAM: A Growing Trend

According to the latest survey from the American Hospital Association, more than one-fourth of hospitals in the U.S. now offer some form of complementary and alternative medicine (CAM) to patients, employees or both. In 1999, the AHA first asked its member hospitals if they offer CAM; the percentage of "yes" respondents has increased dramatically since then:

SOURCE: Complementary and Alternative Medicine Survey of Hospitals. Health Forum/American Hospital Association (AHA). Survey conducted in December 2005; findings released July 18, 2006.